LETTER TO THE EDITOR

"Dear Stan;

"Norm Belsten and I have had the logo for C.A.W.M.C. made and left with Jim Deluney. If anyone wants to use our die they may do so. All we ask is for them to send 6 pieces of their wood that they have made with our die. That way they do not have the price of the die themselves. Please put this in Timber Talk.

"We are also making wood for the first wooden money show and they will be sold for $1.00 each to help raise money to pay for the hotel room for the show.

"Anyone interested in either the die or the wood for the show can write to Norm Belsten or me.

Yours truly,

Russell Brown,
7 Cartier Cres.,
Richmond Hill, Ontario,
L4C 2M9"

CALGARY AND DISTRICT CHAPTER C.A.W.M.C. FORMED

E. J. Salterio

The inaugural meeting of the Calgary and District Chapter of the Canadian Association of Wooden Money Collectors was held at the residence of Al Munro May 29, 1981, with the following in attendance:

Mrs. Honor Prince, Calgary
Mr. Frank Harding, Delisle, Sask.
Mr. Garry Braunwarth, Calgary
Mr. Frank Selman, Calgary
Mr. Al Munro, Calgary
Mr. Earl Salterio, Calgary

Mr. Stan Clute, Vice-president C.A.W.M.C. sent his regrets in being unable to attend as he is confined to home recuperating from a bout with pneumonia (Get well soon, Stan).

Al Munro, host and coordinator, was appointed Chairman until further notice. It was decided that meetings of the group, which will expand in numbers, will be held as the need and/or opportunity arises, but not less frequent than quarterly.

Admission to meetings will be one wood, to be collected and drawn as door prize at the end of the meeting. Garry was the winner at this meeting.

An enjoyable time was had by swapping woods and stories, capped off with pizzas for all. We look forward to many more such evenings and invite any interested parties to join us.

Shown above is a new homemade wood issued by Stan Clute, P. O. Box 2082, High River, Alberta. A total of 100 have been made on birch planchets. The obverse, in red, states "TOWN OF HIGH RIVER - 1906 - 1981 - 75th ANNIVERSARY" while the reverse, is green consists of the C.A.W.M.C. logo. This piece was issued to commemorate the seventy-fifth anniversary of the incorporation of High River as a town (although its history goes back much further - right back to the "wild west"). They are available from Stan at 50¢ each or 3 for $1.00.

Depicted above is a new wood issued by member Ian Graham, 120 Oxford Street, Fredericton, N. B., E3B 2W3. The obverse reads "MAY 9 - 10, 1981 IAN GRAHAM CONVENTION SECRETARY KEDDY'S MOTOR INN FOREST HILL ROAD FREDERICTON, N. B." The reverse shows the Atlantic Provinces Numismatic Association logo. These were issued by Ian for the A.P.N.A. Spring convention and are available from him at the above address for 50¢ each plus SASE.

Two more new issues for the A.P.N.A. Convention. Both have the Association logo on the reverse. The obverse of the piece at left reads "A.P.N.A. CONVENTION MAY 9 - 10, 1981 KEDDY'S MOTOR INN FOREST HILL ROAD FREDERICTON N. B." The obverse of the wood at right reads "FREDERICTON NUMISMATIC SOCIETY CELEBRATING 10th ANNIVERSARY 1971 - 1981 KEDDY'S MOTOR INN FOREST HILL ROAD FREDERICTON N. B." Both issues are available at 50¢ each plus SASE from Fredericton Numismatic Society, P. O. Box 445, Fredericton, N.B., E3B 4Z9

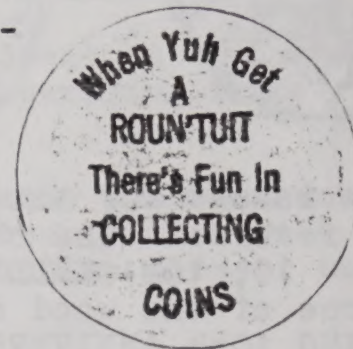

The four woods shown here were issued for the Boy Scout Jamboree this year at Kananaskis, Alberta. All four share the same reverse and are green.

Enough have been donated to send one of each issue out to each member with future issues of Timber Talk. Additional sets are available from Al Munro, 36 Marcombe Place N. E., Calgary, Alberta, T2A 4H9 at $2.00 per set plus SASE.

The above wood, issued by Kenny Munro of Stoney Plain, Alberta is available from Al Munro (Kenny's uncle) at 36 Marcombe Place N. E., Calgary, Alberta, T2A 4H9. Cost is 50¢ each, or a one-on-one trade for other woods, maximum five of any one type.
